Your recycling efforts are paying off!

Thanks to participation in recycling and composting programs, Incline Village and Crystal Bay residents hit their highest diversion rates ever in 2017.

Preliminary statistics on community recycling efforts place the recycling rate at 29%. That's a 9% gain over the previous year, and a nearly 13% gain since 2014.

I recently had the pleasure of visiting Bently Ranch in Minden NV. Being new to the area (and an avid chef) one of the first things I do is source quality food products. I search for locally raised eggs, grass fed meats, and organic produce. The person that answered the phone at Bently Ranch was polite, informed, and inviting. Just as I would expect from a small family operation. A simple sign off of Hwy 395 marked the entrance of the vast expanse that is Bently Ranch. This wasn't quite the small family operation that I had envisioned in my head! Rolling down the long tree lined driveway, it quickly became evident that this was a serious ranching operation. I passed herds of cattle feeding peacefully in uncrowded pastures, modern ranch buildings, newer ranch equipment, and what appeared to be "test" garden areas. The headquarters of the ranch is an unassuming, vintage ranch house where Woody Worthington, the Sales and Marketing Manager, and other key employees are housed. The Bently Ranch operation comprises 50,000 acres in NV and CA. Woody was kind enough to take me on a tour explaining some of the current projects occurring around the ranch. I learned that Bently Ranch is the largest composter in Nevada. He shared with me why not all grass is equal, and therefore why not all grass fed cows are equal. Herd management will greatly impact the quality of the final product. Herd Manager, Todd Radelfinger, explains it this way, "as cowboys, our holistic approach and the care we provide to these animals is our way of saying, "Thank you". The Bently cowboys know every herd and each individual animal in that herd. The cow/calf operations are Beef Quality Assurance 2018 award winners. Proper stewardship and the health of each animal is paramount to a great finished product, consistently producing the finest beef around. The ranch responsibly manages every process; from the nutrients the pastures receive, the grass the cattle eat, to the water they drink. Positively and minimally impacting the environment is at the heart of Bently Ranch. It is evidently clear with every process, every employee, every facility, the philosophy of producing and providing the healthiest, most humane product is a way of life, not a strategy. They have the only LEED certified butcher shop in Nevada. Matt McKinney, Bently Ranch General Manager explains "we are driven to produce the highest quality, certified natural, agricultural and beef products possible." From what I've sampled, I say they've achieved that goal. My first experience cooking with Bently ranch beef exceeded my expectations. I found the cuts I prepared to be well marbled, mild in flavor, and aesthetically pleasing. The butchers at Bently Ranch understand the craft and do a great job. Visit the butcher shop and try a few cuts. You won't be disappointed.

Kurt Colgan, Chef

Kurt Colgan is a traveling chef and avid fly fisherman. He owns a company called Tight Lines Cafe that focuses on cooking in great fly fishing destinations. A few of his favorite places outside of the states where he's done both are New Zealand, Ireland and Canada. Fine food and wine only make the fly fishing experience even better.

SHOP LOCAL

Ranching is one of the West's most storied institutions, and while our philosophies evoke these traditions we also incorporate innovative cattle management techniques.

Our Angus-based cattle are bred to become the top-of-the-line beef we are known for. We breed Angus, Hereford, and Charolais cattle, resulting in the beef our customers expect.

165-POINT INSPECTION TESTED BY ADVENTURERS

What's the difference between a used vehicle and an approved certified pre-owned Land Rover? We can name at least 165. Each vehicle must undergo a robust 165-point inspection and safety check to ensure every one is as good as new and up for any journey that comes its way. Plus, with 24/7 roadside assistance and up to 7 years/100,000-mile limited warranty*, you'll be covered down the road, too.

Before our vehicles leave the factory, every Land Rover undergoes our most rigorous performance & safety check. Just a few short years later they're put through it all over again to become an Approved Certified Pre-Owned vehicle. A grueling 165-point inspection check ensures every vehicle is as good as new. Which they practically are. Visit Land Rover Reno for a test drive today.

*Land Rover Approved Certified Pre-Owned Coverage, including limited warranty and roadside assistance, expires up to seven years from the original in-service date or 100,000 miles, whichever comes first. Original in-service date is the earlier of the new-vehicle retail sale or in-use date, as reported to Jaguar Land Rover North America, LLC. Select vehicles may have the option for different warranty terms. Vehicles with the 7 years/100,000 miles limited warranty are limited in supply and only available at participating Land Rover Retailers. See your local authorized Land Rover Retailer for complete terms and conditions of the limited warranty and service coverage.

Incline Village’s Bear Smart Program showing reductions in human/bear conflict through trash containment and ordinance enforcement

Incline Village General Improvement District (IVGID) has been on a proactive, multi-year effort to reduce the human/bear conflict attributed to garbage and the results seem to be showing promise. In 2016, IVGID Solid Waste Ordinance 1 was updated, mandating secure storage and containment of all garbage until collection. A scale of fines or mandatory required locking containers was instituted for non-compliance. A revised Waste Management contract required that all residential customers use a standard poly-cart (that is stored inside a building until service), a rental locking poly-cart (that can be left outside), or a metal bear shed.

After giving the community time to be informed of the new requirements, the IVGID Board of Trustees directed staff to implement strict (zero tolerance) enforcement of the ordinance and the storage regulations, effective August 1, 2017. This began another round of intensive public education on solid waste collection services and increased enforcement of Ordinance 1. ‘Enforcement’ always includes a strong outreach component, using the Bear Smart Incline Village education program materials. Dedicated staff provides one-on-one consultation with property owners when a report is received. Violations are issued, as required, to gain compliance.

On August 1, 2018, the one-year anniversary of ‘zero tolerance enforcement’ occurred. A comparison of the first 6 months of 2017 and 2018 shows a 67% drop in reported trash problems to the District.

Solid Waste Issues Reported

January through July 2017	162
January through July 2018	50

The nature of trash problems has changed through outreach and enforcement. Intensive efforts in the commercial sector has yielded larger gains, with the large-scale spills and overages at trash dumpsters, previously seen on a daily basis, becoming an occasional incident. Waste Management has been making improvements to the locking features of dumpsters, offering several styles of locking dumpster in the community, and providing ‘snapshot’ reports to IVGID for use in the compliance efforts. All dumpsters in the community have bear resistant locking mechanisms, which must be used properly to be effective. Locking up the dumpsters has removed the ‘bulk feeding’ potential of 3, 4 or 6 yards of garbage and food waste from wildlife access.

For the residential sector, the severity of the issues of trash spills and other solid waste violations is usually small. The vacation rental sector has emerged as the most frequent type of residential solid waste issue, with common problems being trash being placed curbside on the wrong day, or excess waste due to high occupancy. Excess or contaminated recycling is also being seen as a minor issue. Approximately 35% of residential services are using a locking collection cart or bear shed, with the remainder using garage storage until collection day.

A major study recently released from Colorado (Assessing ecological and social outcomes of a bear proofing experiment, Johnson) attributes a reduction in human-bear conflict when a community reached 60% containment on garbage. "Conflicts declined as resident compliance with wildlife ordinances increased to approximately 60% (by using a bear-resistant container or locking trash in a secure location), with minor additional declines in conflicts at higher levels of compliance. In addition to these ecological benefits, public mail surveys demonstrated that the deployment of bear-resistant containers was associated with increases in the perceived quality of bear management and support for ordinances that require bear-proofing, and declines in the perceived risk of future trash-related conflicts."

The efforts by IVGID and Incline Village and Crystal Bay residents towards trash containment are reinforcing the assumptions of this study, and moving us forward in our Bear

Smart Community efforts. As we move into the fall season, and Tahoe bear enter hyperplasia (feeding intensity), the trial of IVGID's trash containment efforts will be put to the full test. For more information about solid waste containment and recycling, visit www.inclinevillage.wm.com. For resources and tips on how to be bear aware, please visit www.yourtahoepace.com/public-works/waste-not/bear-wildlife-awareness

Solid Waste Services are part of IVGID's Long Range Principle #1, Resources and Environment; initiating and maintaining effective practices of environmental sustainability for a healthy environment, a strong community and a lasting legacy. Additionally, Solid Waste Services are part of IVGID's Long Range Principle #4, Service; the District will provide superior quality service and value to its customers considering responsible use of District resources and assets.
