II. BACKGROUND

IVGID's Management Staff and the employees in the Non-Supervisory bargaining unit have been meeting since July 2020 to negotiate the labor agreement. An agreement has been reached on a new three-year contract covering July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2023.

The following summarizes the terms of the new agreement impacting compensation:

- Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) - retains annual COLA based on existing index; Consumer Price Index (CPI)-West All Items - March-to-March change. The proposed agreement establishes a "floor" of 1.0%, to apply if the CIP index for a given year is below 1.0%

- Performance-based increase in wages, based on goals and evaluation ratings: Needs Improvement = 0%, Meets Expectations = 2%, Exceeds Expectations = 4%; effective July 1, 2020.
- Increase Pension Plan employer contribution from 12.3% to 13.3% of salary, effective first payroll after full pay period that the contract is approved.
- Clothing Allowance – increased from $600 to $630, annually, per employee.

In addition, the new agreement address several non-financial items, summarized as follows:

- Cleaned up language: continuous overtime, holiday pay, safety sensitive, management language, jury time, one-time lump sum payout for reaching top of salary grade;
- Nationwide State or Local Emergencies shut down procedures; and
- Renaming the bargaining group to Public Works Operations & Maintenance & Skilled Trades.

III. FINANCIAL IMPACT

The financial impact of the negotiated agreement is estimated to result in an increased cost, across all-funds, of $143,400 over the three-year term, which equates to an average annual increase of $47,800.

The increased cost for the first year of the agreement is estimated at $37,600, and is within the funding provided in the approved FY2020/2021 budget. The increased cost in the second year of the agreement is estimated at $52,500 and the increased cost in the third year of the agreement is estimated at $53,280.

Roughly 90% of the cost of the new agreement will be funded through the Utility Fund (Fund 200), with the balance (10%) supported by the District's General Fund (Fund 100).

IV. COMMENTS

The union membership ratified the terms of agreement by majority vote. This is a Public Hearings, with possible action, item in accordance with Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 288.153.

Orientation of new employees: When a new employee who is governed under this Collective bargaining agreement is hired, a meeting with the union's business agent or active job steward shall be scheduled. It is the sole responsibility of the union representatives to schedule such meetings. This meeting will not be longer than 10 minutes and be held the same day as the employee orientation.

10.2 The union shall notify the Employer of the selection of the job steward.

10.3 The job steward shall not stop the Employer's work for any reason, or tell any Employee covered by this Agreement that Employee cannot work on the job.

10.4 It is hereby mutually understood and agreed that no person is authorized to act as or is to be deemed to be an authorized agent of either party to this Agreement unless the party appointing such authorized agent has first notified the other in writing of such appointment and the scope of the authority of such an agent.

10.5 It is hereby agreed and understood that the following persons and no other shall be the authorized agents of the respective parties until further notice as provided in Section 10.4 hereof;

Duly authorized agent of the Union shall be: Business Manager or Business Representative designated by the Business Manager.

Duly authorized agent of the Employer shall be the General Manager, or any other person authorized by Employer to act as his agent whose identity and scope of authority has been made known to the Local Union by written communication from said Employer.

11. DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

The purpose of this article is to provide for an equitable and expeditious manner of the resolution of disputes arising from the imposition of discipline. The tenure and status of every employee is conditioned on reasonable standards of personal conduct and job performance. Failure to meet such standards shall be just cause for disciplinary action. In addition to the causes set forth in the District personnel policies, discipline may be based upon any of the following grounds:

1. Failure to fully perform required duties.

2. Failure to maintain current certifications required by law and by the Job Description, or a certification not required by law will be required following a reasonable period during which employees may obtain such certification,
3. Insubordination,
4. Abuse of employer policies or rules,
5. Unexcused absences,
6. Misuse or abuse of District property or equipment,
7. Substandard job performance,
8. Commission of a crime involving moral turpitude, and
9. Commission of other acts which are incompatible with service to the public. The examples are not exhaustive and the absence of a specific offense from the list of examples shall not be interpreted to mean that any particular conduct or level of performance does not constitute just cause for disciplinary action.

11.1 Any Employee involved in a discussion with their supervisor or management, who has reason to believe that discipline may result from said discussion, shall have the right to request Employee's Steward or Union Representative be present during the discussion. If the Employee wishes to have Union representation during such discussions, it shall be Employee's responsibility to make such wishes known and the Employer shall make arrangements for the desired representation. The Employer agrees that no Employee will be disciplined or discharged without cause. Disciplinary actions may include written warnings, suspensions without pay, demotion, reduction in salary, and discharge. Disciplinary actions may be taken without prior notice of intent and need not be preceded by lesser forms of discipline.

11.2 NOTICE OF INTENT

11.2.1 Written Notice of Intent to suspend for more than ten (10) working days, demote or discharge, shall be given to the employee, either by delivery of the notice to the employee in person, or by placing the Notice of Intent in the United States mail, first class postage paid, in an envelope addressed to the employee at the employee's last known home address.

11.2.2 Such delivery is conclusively presumed to provide actual notice to the affected employee. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to inform the District in writing of any change in such address. Whether delivery is made in person or by mail, the Notice of Intent shall contain a Statement of Delivery or Mailing indicating the date on which the Notice of Intent was personally delivered or mailed. Such date of delivery or mailing shall be the date of issuance of the Notice of Intent.

11.2.3 The Notice shall inform the employee of:

11.2.4 The charge;

11.2-5 The action intended;

11.2.6 The reasons for the intended action; and,

11.2.7 The effective date of the intended action.

11.2.8 The Notice shall also inform the employee of the right to respond to the Notice of Intent prior to the action being taken, the time limit within which the response should be made, the person to whom the response shall be made, and the response options available to the employee.

11.2.9 A copy of the Notice of Intent will be sent to the Union.

12. EMPLOYEE RESPONSE TO THE NOTICE OF INTENT

12.1 No employee is required to respond to the Notice of Intent. Furthermore, the absence of an employee response does not automatically indicate that the employee agrees with the charges in the Notice, nor does it restrict the employee from grieving any Management action which occurs after the employee's deadline for responding has passed.

12.2 If the Notice is to demote or to suspend the employee for more than ten (10) working days, the employee has the right to respond to the Notice, either orally or in writing. Such response must be received within ten (10) work days from the date of issuance of the Notice of Intent. Late responses need not be considered.

12.3 If the Notice of Intent is to discharge, as an alternative to the oral or written response, the employee may request a meeting with the District. Such response or request for a meeting must be received by the District no later than ten (10) work days from the date of issuance of such Notice of Intent. Such a meeting shall be scheduled within five (5) work days after the request is made. If the employee wishes representation in the meeting, the District shall make arrangement for the employee's representative, if an employee of the District, to be excused from work for the meeting. At the meeting, the employee shall be entitled to give a response, orally or in writing before the District decides on the action to be taken. When the employee is represented by the Union, such response must include any and all facts or defenses known to the employee or to the employee's representative. Late responses need not be considered.

12.4 Verbal and written reprimands shall only be subject to review through Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure and shall not be subject to arbitration or litigation. For any action which is not arbitrable, the affected Employee may prepare a written statement responding to the reprimand and such statement shall be included in the Employee's official personnel file(s) if it is submitted within five (5) calendar days of the final disposition by the General Manager or their designee. Such written responses shall remain in the official personnel file(s) for as long as the reprimand remains in file.

13. INVESTIGATORY LEAVE

13.1 The District may place an employee on investigatory leave without prior notice in order to review or investigate allegations of conduct which, at the District's sole discretion, would warrant relieving the employee immediately from work duties. If upon conclusion of the investigation neither suspension without pay nor discharge is determined by the District to be appropriate, the employee shall be paid for the leave. If, as a result of the investigation, the District determines that the allegations against the employee support discharge, then the investigatory leave period shall be without pay. If, as a result of the investigation, the District determines that the allegations against the employee support a suspension, then the appropriate portion of the investigatory leave period shall be applied to the suspension.

13.2 When an employee is placed on investigatory leave, the Union will be sent a notice of such action.

13.3 Any Employee being suspended, involuntarily demoted or discharged shall not be removed from the payroll or otherwise adversely affected until after the completion of a pre-disciplinary hearing before the Department Head or acting Department Head. The purpose of a pre-disciplinary hearing is for the Employee to respond to the specific charges and present evidence on their behalf. The Employee must be timely notified in writing of the dismissal, involuntary demotion or suspension and the reasons therefore. The Employee shall have the right to be represented at this hearing by a Union Representative. After hearing the evidence presented at the hearing, the Department Head shall render a written decision within five (5) working days. Discipline more severe than that described in the Notice of Intent may not be imposed without the issuance of a further Notice of Intent; however, the District may reduce such discipline without the issuance of a further Notice of Intent. A copy of the decision will be provided to the Union.

13.4 Upon receiving the Department Head's written decision, an Employee who has been suspended, involuntarily demoted or discharged, shall have the right to appeal such decision through the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure of this Agreement, beginning at Step 4.

14. GRIEVANCES

14.1 Except where a remedy is otherwise provided for, any Employee shall have the right to present a grievance arising from his employment in accordance with the rules and regulations of this procedure. A grievance shall be defined as a dispute between the District and the Union arising over the interpretation or application of a specific provision of this Agreement which is not a management right. Grievances as defined above shall be resolved pursuant to this Article.

14.2 All parties so involved must act in good faith and strive for objectivity, while endeavoring to reach a solution at the earliest possible step of the procedure. The aggrieved Employee shall have the assurance that the filing of a grievance will not result in reprisal of any nature. The aggrieved Employee shall have the right to be represented or accompanied by a Representative of the Union at all stages of the grievance procedure.

14.3 Certain time limits in the grievance procedure are designed to quickly settle a grievance. It is realized, however, that on occasion the parties concerned may be unable to comply with the established limitations. In such instances, the limitations may be extended upon the mutual agreement of all parties concerned in writing, in advance of the expiration of the time limits. Deadlines which fall on a District non-business day will automatically be extended to the next business day. A business day is Monday through Friday, excluding observed holidays.

14.4 Failure of the aggrieved Employee to file an appeal within the prescribed time limit for any step of the procedure shall constitute abandonment of the grievance. Employer shall abide by prescribed time limits.

14.5 Any person responsible for conducting any conference, meeting or hearing under the formal grievance procedure shall give due and timely notice to all persons concerned.

14.6 When two or more Employees experience a common grievance, they may initiate a single grievance proceeding. The initial hearing of the grievance shall be by the immediate Supervisor, Manager or Department Head who has the prime responsibility for all of the aggrieved Employees.

14.7 The grievance procedure shall be as follows:

Step 1. When an Employee becomes aware that dissatisfaction exists with their work or work situation, Employee should discuss the matter informally with their immediate supervisor. Initial discussion should be sought by the Employee not later than ten (10) working days after the event giving rise to the grievance occurred, or ten (10) working days after the Employee should have had knowledge of the event, whichever is later. The following provisions relating to formal grievance procedure does not restrict the Employee and Supervisor from seeking advice and counsel from Managers and Department Heads when:

a) Mutually consented to by the Employee and Supervisor.

b) It appears that settlement can be reached at this informal level.

Step 2. The Supervisor will hear the grievance and give their written decision within five (5) working days of the receipt of the formal grievance papers.

Step 3. If the written decision of the Supervisor is unsatisfactory to the Employee, the Employee may request that the grievance be presented to the Department Head for review. This request must be made in writing within five (5) working days of the receipt of the Supervisor's decision. The Department Head will hear the grievance and give their written decision within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the formal grievance papers.

Step 4. If the written decision of the Department Head is unsatisfactory to the Employee, the Employee may request that the grievance be presented to the General Manager for review. This request must be made in writing within five (5) working days of the receipt of the Department Head's decision. The General Manager will hear the grievance and give their written decision within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the formal grievance papers.

Step 5. If the written decision of the General Manager is unsatisfactory to the Employee, the Union or Employee within ten (10) working days may request the grievance be advanced to arbitration. The arbitrator list will be requested within one-hundred twenty (120) days and the arbitrator from a list of seven (7) names supplied by the Federal Mediation and Conciliatory Service (FMCS), or another arbitration service mutually agreeable to the Employer and Union. The parties shall select the arbitrator by alternately striking names until one name remains. The Union representative shall strike the first name. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties.

14.8 The arbitrator shall have no authority to alter, amend, add to or subtract in any way the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall confine their decision to a determination of the facts and an interpretation and application of this Agreement. The parties agree to each pay one-half the costs of the arbitrator.

14.9 COMPLAINT RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

14.9.1 TERMS

14.9.2 A complaint is defined as a complaint by an employee or the Union regarding the terms and conditions of an employee's employment which are not subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures.

14.9.3 ADJUSTMENT OF COMPLAINTS

14.9.4 The employee shall attempt to resolve complaints with his/her immediate supervisor as soon as practicable. If the complaint is not resolved through informal discussion, the employee may notify the shop steward. The shop steward shall investigate the complaint and make a report to the Union representative.

14.9.5 When the Union has a complaint or when an Employee's complaint has not been resolved, the Union representative may bring the complaint to the attention of the District. The Union representative and the local Personnel Department will meet to discuss the complaint and to attempt to resolve it.

14.9.6 Informal resolutions, although final, shall not be precedent setting unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Settlement offers made in this informal process shall not be introduced against a party or in grievances or arbitration.

Effective July 1, 2017 the contribution rate would increase by 0% totaling 2%
